

Somewhere along the borders between Cambodia and Vietnam, a young girl was yanked from her classroom and forced into the life of prostitution.

Somewhere in an impoverished part of Vietnam, a small boy was told to quit school to sell cigarettes and help put food on the table for his family.

All over Vietnam, children were facing the harsh reality of poverty, that they could never dare...

to wish for books, pencils, for friends and teachers to laugh and for a while forget their realities to hope of a future and bring new beginnings to dream a simple dream that you would wish them to have.

For 5 dollars a month, you can give a child your dream of a better world.
